

And one day the war took my father.

1. What can you see? What can't you see?
2. What does the black represent?
3. There is only one sentence. Why?
4. 'The war took my father'. What does that mean?

Now, listen to the story up to 2 minutes and 59 seconds BUT NO FURTHER!

We will be working on the rest of the story
next week.

Think about ...

- What would it be like to have to leave your home?
- How might the characters be feeling?
- Can you think of people who are having to do this right now?
